Team Philosophy

Every swimmer will swim at least once in a meet, either in competition or as an alternate. For championships, however, there are not alternate events, so the coaches will prepare the best and fastest lineup possible in an effort to win a trophy for the team.

Consent and Release

I/we as the parent(s) and natural guardian(s), and/or as the legal guardian(s) of

_____, do hereby agree to release, discharge, indemnity, and hold harmless the Blackridge Swim Team, for any and all claims, suits, and/or actions for damages of whatsoever kind and nature as the result of my child and/or children participating on the Blackridge Swim Team, and further, do hereby waive, release, and discharge such individuals and/or entities from any and all such claims and/or actions whatsoever.

I further grant the Blackridge Swim Club (BSC) the right to use photographs and video of my child/children participating in the Blackridge Swim Team supplied by parents or staff in BSC brochures and on BSC websites and social media. There will be no monetary compensation for any image or video used by the BSC. The BSC agrees not to mention the child's/children's name(s) without permission. If I object to any image of my child/children that appears on any BSC website or social media platform, I may contact the BSC in writing, who will be happy to remove them.

I agree to abide by the swim team rules as laid out by the swim coaches and pool board.
